The screenshot displays the registration interface. On the left, the 'Have an Account?' section includes a 'LOGIN' button and a link for 'Forgot your password?'. The main 'First Time Registering?' section is divided into three parts: 'Account Login Information' with fields for Email Address, Password, and Confirm Your Password; 'Member Information' with fields for First Name, Last Name, Gender (set to Female), and Birthdate; and 'Address' with a field for the main contact address. A checkbox at the bottom of the Member Information section indicates the user will be registering themselves into activities.
